Back ground information for the event:-

Mid Devon Cycling Club and South West Cyclocross league have teamed up with NEVER STRAYS FAR podcast hosts and ITV cycling commentary team David Millar, Pete Kennaugh and Ned Boulting for the 4th round of the National Trophy Cyclocross at Torbay Velopark on 19th & 20th November. The podcast hosts will be attending the event and be on site at points over the weekend.

This is the first time for many years that the South West are hosting this event which will be held at Torbay Velopark where new cyclocross features funded by Mid Devon CC and British Cycling will be utilised. Work on this exciting new phase for the Velopark started in September to create one of the only public access cyclocross courses in the UK

The event is likely to receive around 700 entries with over 1000 spectators bringing approximately £160k to Torbay.

Volunteers opportunities

We need all the Mid Devon Club members and South West Clubs to help and play a part in this spectacular event. If you are able to support, please fill in the form in the link below.

What is National Trophy Cyclocross:-

Best riders in the UK from ages from 12 to 70+ The National Series begins in Derby on the weekend of October 8-9, before moving on Falkirk (22-23 October), which successfully hosted its debut National Series event in 2021. The series continues a week later (29-30 October) on a new course in South Shields, at Gypsies Green.

Riders will then have to contend with Torbay Velopark – another course new for the series – on 19-20 November, before round five at Broughton Hall in Skipton on 17-18 December. The series then concludes in the new year at Cyclopark in Gravesend, from 7-8 January.
